

Joanne asks committee about potential training needs. Chuck reports great retention of employees so there is minimal current need for hiring new welders. The greater need is for

